The Actor's Nightmare (Christopher Durang)
& Impromptu (Tad Mosel)

In association with Do Your Thing Productions

July 20 - 24 & July 27 - 31 ~ ages 11 and up

Summer camp for the theatre lover! Here are two, one act plays with little comedy and a little drama, for up and coming actors to sink their teeth into! Both plays are great examples of acting technique and theatre history, a treasure for any student looking for a great acting experience. This is a two week camp with two performances. Admittance to performances is by donation.

For 2 weeks: $350.00 per child

Movers and Shakers

July 20 - 24 ~ ages 6 and up In association with Do Your Thing Productions

This dance camp will have students learning technique and choreography while also being exposed to the "acting" and "performance" side of dance. It's not just about learning the steps and proper dance form; it's about learning to entertain with the art form that you love. There will be a short dance presentation at the end of the week, allowing the students to strut their stuff and show off their performance pieces. Admittance to performances is by donation.

For 1 week: $150.00 per child

The Funny Business

August 4 - 7 ~ ages 7 and up In association with Do Your Thing Productions

Our instructors are well versed in the art of comedy, having been trained with some of the best institutions (The Second City) and performed with some of the best (Jerry Stiller, Robin Duke & Jay Legget). Improvisation is an exceptional confidence builder for all students, it teaches listening skills, eye contact and discipline! A week with us will prove to be a great asset to any child's social and public speaking development. Admittance to performances by donation.

For 1 week: $130.00 per child
