

Region of Peel
Retail Business Holiday Act
Orientation
(Updated February 2017)

1. Introduction

The Retail Business Holiday Act defines 'holiday' and 'retail business' and requires that retail businesses remain closed for statutory holidays. (See Appendix A for a summary of the Act.) Exemptions for 'essential business services' are granted by the Act. The Act also grants Regional Council to provide additional exemptions in order to support the tourism industry provided certain criteria approved by Provincial Regulation 711/91, are satisfied. (See Appendix B.) As some applications are made by businesses which claim to be 'tourist attractions', a definition of 'tourism attractions' is included as Appendix C.

2. Exemptions

Applications for exemptions are to be processed in accordance with a procedure approved by Regional Council through By-law 18-1999 (which replaced the original By-law 58-92). (See Appendix D for a summary of the By-law). Exemption Applications are to be submitted to the Commissioner of Planning.

3. Application Requirements

Applicants are required by By-law to complete a request in a format illustrated in Appendix E (E1 for an individual establishment or an area and E2 for a special event) and must submit a Fee, established in the Fees By-law 60-2016, in the amount of $1,500.00

Actual costs associated with advertising the Public Notice in the newspaper will be recovered. Development Services staff will contact the applicant and request payment after the Public Notice has been advertised.

4. Process

The Development Services Division (DS) of Public Works will circulate the proposal to prescribed and discretionary persons and agencies and prepare a report to Regional Council as to whether the proposal satisfies Provincial Criteria and whether a Public Meeting should be held. If a Public Meeting is requested by Council, DS will prepare a draft implementing By-law and cause notice to prescribed persons and agencies. A Process Map illustrating the steps to be taken is attached as Appendix F. Notice instructions is attached as Appendix G and a sample notice is attached as Appendix H.

5. Duration

The process will take 120 days as there are statutory notice periods.

6. Appeals

The Retail Holiday Business Act, allows any person to object to Council's By-law to exempt a business, area or special event, by filing a notice of appeal to the Board within 30 days of the By-law's approval, and reasons in support of the objection. The Region's By-law specifically states that Regional Staff will not participate in any Hearing to resolve the objection. There have been objections to exemption by-laws passed by Regional Council.

7. Past Exemptions

Appendix G is a summary of exemptions approved by Council since 1980 and remain in effect.

Appendix A

RETAIL BUSINESS HOLIDAYS ACT SUMMARY

1. A 'Holiday' means: New Years Day, Good Friday, Family Day, Easter Sunday, Victoria Day, Canada Day, Labour Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and any special day declared by the Lieutenant Governor.
2. 'Retail Business' is where goods or services are offered for sale at retail. The Owner or an employee is responsible for compliance.
3. Retail Businesses must be closed during holidays except for:
 - a) where three or less employees, in 2,400 square feet or less offer only:

 - f) businesses offering:
 - i) prepared meals
 - ii) living accommodation
 - iii) Laundromats
 - iv) vehicle rental or repair (including boats).
4. A Regional municipality may grant exemptions to the Act in order to enhance tourism related businesses. An application may be made by an individual business, group of businesses or a municipality. Regional Council must hold a Public Meeting and must take tourism criteria, issued by the Lieutenant Governor into account and may approve or deny the application, even if the proposal meets the criteria. The criteria mentioned above is set out in Ontario Regulation 711/91. An implementing By-law must be approved a minimum of 30 days prior to its effective date and the applicant may appeal the decision to the Ontario Municipal Board.

- The Council may establish procedures and set a fee (within the scope of regulations) for processing applications. An exemption by-law may effect one or more businesses or class of businesses, effect only portions of the municipality, effect one or more or different holidays or times of the year and may limit the number of hours the business may be allowed to be open.
5. There is provisions for “Religious” concerns allowing a business to be open on a Sunday or holiday, if it regularly closes another day.
 6. Provisions of a lease that require a business to be open on a Sunday or December 26 is of no effect.
 7. The Retail Holiday Business Act, allows any person to object to Council’s By-law to exempt a business, area or special event, by filing a notice of appeal to the Board within 30 days of the By-law’s approval, and reasons in support of the objection
 8. Minimum Fines are $500 for a first offence, $2,000 for a second offence and $5,000 for third or subsequent offence and the maximum fine is $50,000 or the gross sales for the day.
 9. The Act is administered by the Ministry of Consumer and Business Services and Regulations must be issued by the Lieutenant Governor.
 10. The Act is enforced by the Policing Authority having jurisdiction in the area and the Provincial Offences Act prevails.
 11. This summary is for the convenience of the reader. Please refer to the Act for a detailed understanding of the effect of the Act.

Appendix B

TOURISM CRITERIA

Regulation 711/91 made under the Retail Business Holidays Act

1. This Regulation sets out the tourism criteria that must be met before a municipality may pass an exempting by-law under subsection 4(1) of the Act.
2. (1) A retail business establishment may be exempted if,
 - (a) it is located within two kilometres of a tourist attraction; and
 - (b) it is directly associated with the tourist attraction or relies on tourists visiting the attraction for business on a holiday.(2) An exemption granted on an area basis may only be given if,
 - (a) all of the retail business establishments in the area are within two kilometres of the tourist attraction;
 - (b) the area does not exceed that necessary to encompass all of the retail business establishments for which an exemption is sought; and
 - (c) at least 25 per cent of the retail business establishments in the area are directly associated with the tourist attraction or rely on tourists visiting the attraction for business on a holiday.(3) For the purposes of this section a tourist attraction is limited to,
