

COMMUNITY RECYCLING CENTRES

The reuse, recycling and disposal services offered at Community Recycling Centres (CRCs) supplement Peel's curbside and apartment collection programs.

Peel's CRCs are for use by Peel residents and small businesses only, and proper identification is required. Proper identification includes:

- > Residents – identification with a current Peel address
- > Small businesses – an original signed letter on company letterhead
- > Contractors – a signed contract or work order with a Peel address referencing the vehicle

Note – Current Peel tax or utility bills are also accepted as proof of ID.

Items Accepted at CRCs

- > Household hazardous waste – e.g. paint, batteries, motor oil. Sharps (needles, syringes and lancets) are accepted in biohazard containers that can be picked up for free at CRCs.
- > Recyclable material – e.g. blue box items, scrap metal and wood, passenger or light truck tires.
- > Other items – e.g. rubble, garbage, construction and demolition material.
- > Reusable goods – e.g. books, home furnishings, toys, clothing. Items in poor condition will not be accepted for reuse and a disposal fee may apply.
- > Electronics – all household electronics are accepted.

For a complete list of acceptable items, visit www.peelregion.ca/waste

Items Not Accepted at CRCs

- > asbestos
- > biomedical waste (e.g. items soiled with bodily fluids)
