

Conservation Day

Conservation Day is hosted by the Region of Peel. Residents are encouraged to safely drop off their household hazardous waste, electronics, confidential fine paper for shredding and reusable items that are in good condition.

Saturday, Sept. 24, 2011

8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

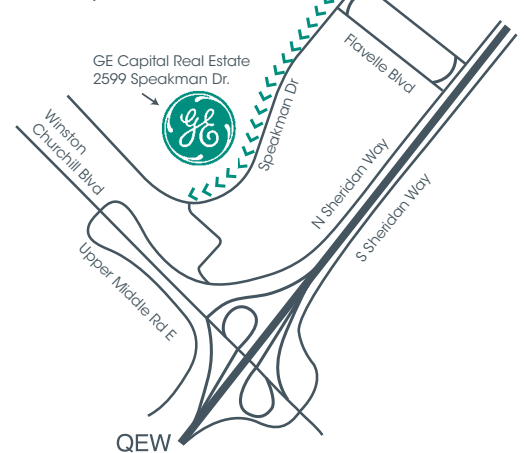

Only the following items are accepted at Conservation Day (unaccepted items must be taken back by the resident or taken to a Community Recycling Centre for disposal):

Household Hazardous Waste (all items MUST be in sealed and labelled containers)	Electronics (all types and parts)	Reusable Goods*
all batteries syringes (in hard-shell plastic containers) household cleaners medicine paint and solvents propane tanks (max. 9 kg/20 lbs.) motor oil aerosol cans engine coolant fertilizers and pesticides	cash registers computers fax machines modems monitors phones printers/scanners TVs VCRs  GREENTEC® Recycling Solutions	clothing housewares books small appliances electronics *Goodwill accepts items at its own discretion. Please donate items that are gently used and in good condition.
Confidential Fine Paper for Shredding  Service provided by Wasteco Making a Material Difference™

Saturday, Sept. 24, 2011

8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

GE Capital Real Estate
2599 Speakman Dr.

Enter site from westbound traffic lane only.

IMPORTANT – The following items are NOT ACCEPTED at Conservation Day:

No waste wood. No scrap metal. No tires. No furniture.
No asbestos. No explosives. No ammunition.

Available for purchase by cash only (taxes included):

Open to residents of Peel. No industrial, commercial or institutional waste will be accepted. Residents must arrive in a vehicle to be serviced – no walk-ins permitted.

Questions? Call the Region of Peel at 905-791-9499 or visit peelregion.ca/waste