Child Development Supports During COVID-19

Did you know?

Every child is unique. At various stages of development, children are learning a variety of skills.

Join an online program provided by EarlyON Child and Family Centres where qualified staff can assist you to learn more about your child’s development and recognize their strengths and abilities.

If you have questions about your child’s development, you can connect privately with an EarlyON Resource Consultant to discuss your child’s needs and be referred to specialized resources, if needed.

To find an online EarlyON program, visit infopeel.ca or call 905-795-3527, extension 3550 to connect with an EarlyON Resource Consultant.