Ontario is celebrating Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II's accession to the Throne 60 years ago, by awarding outstanding Canadians with a Diamond Jubilee Medal. This medal pays special tribute to Queen Elizabeth II's 60 years as our reigning monarch and honours her life-long commitment to her responsibilities, by recognizing those who have made significant contributions to Ontario and Canada.

All Ontarians have an opportunity to participate in this special commemoration by submitting names for this prestigious honour. I would like to encourage you to participate by submitting nominations from your community.

Applications can be submitted online (ontario.ca/honoursandawards). The nomination period ends on April 30, 2012.

If you need any additional information about the Diamond Jubilee Medal or the nomination process, please contact me at sylvia.jonesco@pc.ola.org.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Jones, MPP
Dufferin-Caledon
